ALLIED POWERS SEND ANSWER TO KOLCHAK

PARIS, June 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—Following is the text of the dispatch originally sent to Admiral Kolchak:

"Paris, May 26, 1919—
"The allied and associated powers feel that the time has come when it is necessary for them once more to make clear the policy they propose to pursue in regard to Russia."

"It has always been a cardinal axiom of the allied and associated powers to avoid interference in the internal affairs of Russia. Their original intervention was made for the sole purpose of assisting those elements in Russia which wanted to continue the struggle against German autocracy and to free their country from German rule, and in order to rescue the Czechoslovaks from the danger of annihilation at the hands of the Bolshevik forces."

"Since the signature of the armistice on November 11, 1918, they have kept forces in various parts of Russia. Munitions and supplies have been sent to assist those associated with them at a very considerable cost. No sooner, however, did the peace conference assemble than they endeavored to bring peace and order to Russia by inviting representatives of all the warring governments within Russia to meet them in the hope that they might be able to arrange a permanent solution of the Russian problem."

"This proposal and a later offer to relieve the distress among the suffering millions of Russia broke down through the refusal of the soviet government to accept the fundamental conditions of suspending hostilities while negotiations for the work of relief was proceeding."

"Some of the allied and associated governments are now being pressed to withdraw their troops and to incur no further expense in Russia, on the ground that continued intervention shows no prospect of producing an early settlement. They are prepared, however, to continue their assistance on the lines laid down below, provided they are satisfied that it will really help the Russian people to liberty, self government and peace."

Allies Hope to Restore Peace.

"The allied and associated governments now wish to declare formally that the object of their policy is to restore peace within Russia by enabling the Russian people to resume control of their own affairs through the instrumentality of a freely elected constituent assembly and to restore peace along its frontiers by arranging for the settlement of disputes in regard to the boundaries of the Russian state and its relations with its neighbors through the peaceful arbitration of the league of nations."

"They are convinced by their experience of the last twelve months that it is not possible to attain these ends by dealing with the soviet government of their country. They are, therefore, disposed to assist the government of Admiral Kolchak and his associates with munitions, supplies and food, to establish themselves as the government of all Russia, provided they receive from them definite guarantees that their policy has the same object in view as of the allied and associated powers."

"With this object they would ask Admiral Kolchak and his associates whether they will agree to the following as the conditions upon which they would accept continued assistance from the allied and associated powers:

Conditions Proposed to Russia.
"In the first place, that, as soon as they reach Moscow they will summon a constituent assembly elected by a free, secret and democratic franchise, as the supreme legislature for Russia to which the government of Russia must be responsible, or, if at that time order is not sufficiently restored, they will summon the constituent assembly, elected in 1917, to sit until such time as new elections are possible."

"Secondly, that throughout the areas which they at present control they will permit free elections in the normal course for all local and legally constituted assemblies, such as municipalities, counties, provinces, etc."

"Thirdly, that they will countenance no attempt to revise the special privilege of any class or order in Russia."

Approve Kolchak Declaration.
"The allied and associated powers have noted with satisfaction the solemn declaration made by Admiral Kolchak and his associates that they have no intention of restoring the former land system. They feel that the principles to be followed in the solution of this and other internal questions must be left to the free decision of the Russian constituent assembly; but they wish to be assured that those whom they are prepared to assist stand for the civil and religious liberty of all Russian citizens and will make no attempt to re-introduce the regime which the revolution has destroyed."

Independence of Finland and Poland.
"Fourthly, that the independence of Finland and Poland be recognized and that in the event of the frontiers and other relations between Russia and these countries not being settled by agreement, they will be referred to the arbitration of the league of nations."

"Fifthly, that if a solution of the relations between Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and the Caucasian and Trans-Caspian territories and Russia is not speedily reached by agreement, the settlement will be made in consultation and co-operation with the league of nations and that until such settlement is made the government of Russia agrees to recognize these territories as autonomous and to confirm the relations which may exist between their de facto governments and the allied and associated governments."

"Sixthly, that the right of the peace conference to determine the future of the Rumanian part of Bessarabia be recognized."

Join League of Nations.
"Seventhly, that as soon as a government for Russia has been constituted on a democratic basis, Russia should join the league of nations and co-operate with the other members in the limitation of armaments and of military organizations throughout the world."

"Finally, that they abide by the declaration made by Admiral Kolchak on November 27, 1918, in regard to Russia's national debt."

"The allied and associated powers will be glad to learn as soon as possible whether the government of Admiral Kolchak and his associates are prepared to accept these conditions, and also whether in the event of ac-

GONZALES NOT AFRAID JUAREZ WILL BE TAKEN

JAUREZ, Mexico, June 12.—At 9 o'clock tonight all was tranquil in Jaurez but advance forces of General Angeles were reported to have engaged in skirmishes with Mexican federalists early in the afternoon along the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. There is no report on the number of casualties which apparently were insignificant.

General Francisco Gonzales, the federal commander, told the Associated Press today that he was not apprehensive of an attack or that any forces General Felipe Angeles and Francisco Villa had in this vicinity could take the city. General Gonzales permitted the correspondent to make an inspection of the Jaurez defenses.

Passing east on Commercial street leading into the county east to Jaurez, General Gonzales has all in readiness for an attack. His men are holding all roads leading into the city. The men are not small in number. The little adobe block houses with their six or eight men in each are bristling with shot, corn shocks and wheat sheaves contain from two to three riflemen and every strategic point is well occupied.

If General Angeles attacks Jaurez and everything goes according to present arrangements it will be hard fought. General Gonzales' fortifications, inspected by American military men, are said to be first class.

General Quieroga was reported to be at Villa Ahumada, 65 miles south of Jaurez late this afternoon with a large force of reinforcements for Jaurez, but several miles of railroad will have to be repaired before General Quieroga can move northward.

Advices received from Guadalupe tonight said Francisco Villa's main force was in the vicinity of Villa Ahumada. If Villa is in this vicinity, he is probably northeast of Villa Ahumada where he has forage for his horses and plenty of water.

There is no question of the nearness of some of General Angeles' forces to Jaurez, as General Gonzales today said there were a small number east of the city. At the ranch of Mrs. G. Weber, four miles east of Jaurez, rebel forces stole all her horses about noon today and from what they said, the main force was south of her place.

Villistas are also reported west of Jaurez in the passes used by General Villa in his previous attacks on Jaurez. A trip several miles east of the city along the river gives no indication that an enemy army is near. The wheat is turning yellow and the corn and alfalfa fields are unmoistened.

Every precaution has been taken to protect the city and General Gonzales is confident he can withstand any attack and repulse the idea of the city falling into the hands of General Angeles. It was reported early tonight that the streets were to be cleared at 9 p. m. and all establishments closed but this was not done.

ceptance they will undertake to form a single government and army command as soon as the military situation makes it possible.

BULGARS DENY OPIUM SENT TO U. S. WAS STOLEN

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Bulgarian minister, Stamen Panaretoff, in an official statement today, refuted the charge that fifteen tons of medicinal opium recently arrived in New York was lost from the Serbian poppy fields now being placed on the American market by agents of the Bulgarian government.

The opium, Minister Panaretoff said, is owned by Bulgarian merchants who bought it from producers, and it was exported to America by the Bulgarian food administration in part payment to the United States food administration grain corporation for American flour shipped to Bulgaria. The original charge was made in a statement by the official information bureau of the kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

PARIS, June 12.—Fifty-five track and field athletes have just arrived from America for the inter-allied games to be held in Pershing stadium at Joinville-le-Pont, near Paris, June 22 to July 6. These arrivals increase the size of the American track team to such an extent that elimination trials will be necessary to select the three men to compete in each event. These trials will be held at Colombes, probably on June 19.

The Rumanian rugby football team entered for the games will play a practice game with the American rugby squad Sunday.

The annual outing of the Second ward was held yesterday at Lorin Farr park. A splendid program was carried out through the afternoon and evening and President Lewis W. Shurtliff delivered an address.

One of the features of the program was a "butterfly dance" executed by a number of little folks of the ward. Vocal and instrumental selections and solo dances comprised the entertainment, following which games and athletic events were held. In the evening a dance was held in the pavilion.

Many of the ward's old folks were taken to the park in automobiles and dinner was served them by members of the ward Relief society.
